Format

Enduro races are composed of multiple timed stages, predominantly downhill, over the course of an adventurous ride. The premise is that it mimics a group ride where you ride together with your friends to the stages and then race each other down a trail, regroup at the bottom and repeat.

Racer will follow the mark trails to the start of each stage where timing will start. At the end of the stage the timing stops and riders work their way to the next stage, this is the "transition" and is not timed. (I.e. of the 50km ridden in the long course only 15km of that will be raced and timed.)

The trails mostly have a sandy base (this does vary at times) and include mostly natural technical features that will have an indicated B-line option. Their claim to fame is the extremely well built jumps and lips built right into the flow of the trail.

	BONUS A new trail is being built for this event and will launch on race day as Stage #3!!!! Start location will not be posted in the course map. Riders will follow the mark course after Stage 2 until they reach the start of Stage 3. Riders will follow the tape and arrows until they arrive at the end of the stage. This trail promises to be very exciting and include some beautiful ganaraska loam, which won't last long! You don't want to miss out on this! This trail will be rated as a blue, intermediate trail with black optionals feature (with go-around) on the side. Riders have to be self-sufficient, there is no tech zone along the course to repair any mechanicals or get outside support. Please carry what you need for the day.
